Summer 2022

ABOUT OUR CENTER

WHO WE SERVE

Reflecting our commitment to the idea that learning happens everywhere, CATLR provides services and programming that are open to all Northeastern educators, including faculty, staff/co-curricular educators, graduate students, and post-doctoral fellows.

HOW WE SUPPORT EDUCATORS

Grounded firmly in the learning sciences, CATLR leads the university in the creation of an inclusive and transformative learning ecosystem.

We offer:

- Programming on a variety of topics related to teaching and learning
- Individual consultations on any aspect of teaching and assessment for individual educators as well as departments, programs, and units
- Cohort programs and inquiry groups for extended engagement opportunities

FORMATS

COMMUNITY CONVERSATION

Lightly facilitated but open-ended discussion and support among colleagues.

EDUCATOR EXCHANGE

Loosely structured, collegial sharing of participants' ideas and practices.

WORKSHOP

Hands-on, interactive session on a specific topic or practice.

INTENSIVE

In-depth engagement with a specific topic or practice, often over multiple days.

FUTURE FACULTY PROGRAM

Graduate students and postdocs can sign up for the Future Faculty Program, a self-paced program that prepares you for teaching responsibilities in higher education and developing your materials for the academic job market. For more on the Future Faculty Program, go to <http://learning.northeastern.edu/ffp>.

Event open to all educators and also fulfills a requirement for graduate students and post-doctoral fellows pursuing the Future Faculty Program.
